

You are cordially invited to join us for a virtual conference on

17 January at 17:00 CET on :

Dieselgate Litigation in Europe and beyond
after the Representative Actions Directive

With the support of the Class Actions Observatory (Observatoire des Actions de Groupe et autres actions collectives) and the Universities of Paris-Saclay, University of Leuven, University of New South Wales, Università degli Studi di Firenze, Universidad de Deusto and Universidade Catolica Portuguesa, this conference will be the second in a series exploring the developments of the Dieselgate litigation from a comparative perspective.

The Programme 17 January 2024 17:00-18:30 CET

(Organized with the support of the Diesel Emissions Justice Foundation)

Please note this conference will be conducted in English.

17.00 : Welcome and the New Representative Actions Directive: Status and Challenges (S. Voet & M. J. Azar-Baud, chairs)

17.15 : Dieselgate litigation in Australia (P. Cashman)

17.30 : Dieselgate litigation in Italy (F. De Dominicis)

17.45 : Dieselgate litigation in Portugal (P. Pais de Vasconcelos)

18.00 : Dieselgate litigation in Spain (J. Suderow)

18:15 : Q&A

REGISTER HERE

OBSERVATOIRE DES ACTIONS DE GROUPE
et autres Actions Collectives

KU LEUVEN

université
PARIS-SACLAY

FACULTÉ
JEAN MONNET
DROIT-ÉCONOMIE-GESTION

UNSW
SYDNEY

UNIVERSIDADE
CATOLICA
PORTUGUESA

 Deusto
Universidad de Deusto

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
FIRENZE
DSG
DIPARTIMENTO DI
SCIENZE GIURIDICHE